Dear Harold:

Discretion or no discretion, I am glad I have the money order, which I have already cashed this morning as by some quirk of fate it seems that I can use it.

As far as Akron is concerned, they have gone back to work at Goodrich. Everything else is very quiet and there is really nothing that can be said about the situation.

Mr. Lind and Miss Wells reciprocate your regards. Me too.

Sincerely yours,

J H Lodish
